MINUTES OF MEETING OF AVENING PARISH COUNCIL HELD ON THURSDAY, 11th OCTOBER 2007 AT 7.30PM

The following Councillors were in attendance: Cllr J Parsons (Chairman), Cllr Mrs G Parsons, Cllr C Redpath, Cllr J Catterall, Cllr T Slater, Cllr M Williamson

Also in attendance: Deborah Cook (Clerk), PCSO Sue Fellows, Mr Naish

53/07 PUBLIC QUESTION TIME

The meeting was adjourned for public questions.

Crime

There had been a burglary at the shop where alcohol was taken from the shop and consumed at the playing fields. The investigation was ongoing.

It was also reported that overnight (10^{th} October) the post box on Rectory Lane had been set alight. This did not seem to have been reported to the police at this stage.

Action: The Clerk will write to Royal Mail in Tetbury to ask them to formally report the matter to the police.

The Antisocial Behaviour section of the CDC was to visit the shop next week to assess the situation. Groups of schoolchildren tended to hang around outside of the shop after they came off the school bus from Tetbury. Regular customers to the shop had complained.

PCSO Sue Fellows attended to answer questions and advised that they had made an increase in the number of police patrols and visited the playing fields on a few occasions. The Parish Council expressed their appreciation. The police also planned to attend the youth club.

The possibility of installing a mosquito device was being discussed along with CCTV.

PCSO Sue Fellows stressed that if a someone phones in who has witnessed an incident and can identify the youth, then the youth can be issued with an antisocial behaviour warning (the parents are also written to). If they get two of these in 6 months then they are on their way to receiving an ASBO. The name of the witness remains confidential. People were urged to continue reporting incidents on the 0845 0901234 on each occasion it happens. This allows the police to build up a picture of what is happening and hopefully then provide a service accordingly. If anyone is available to attend at the time of the call, then they will.

The Chairman thanked PCSO Sue Fellows for attending.
